TEMPE
 A lawn social is always an enjoyable affair, and the one at the Hough residence next Tuesday evening promises to be particularly so. Ice cream and cake will be served at ten cents. The Good Templars lodge does not wish to make anything but expenses, so the price is put very low. They have taken this means of advertising the lodge, and incidentally bringing the young people of Tempe together to spend a pleasant evening. Entertainments of this sort are always popular in Tempe, and particularly so at this time of the year when many are absent at seaside or mountain resorts. Besides the weather being too warm to permit almost any other amusement. The Good Templars' social bids fair to be well attended.

A hunting party composed of Messrs. W. G. Colwell, G. J. Ridenour and Frank Henderson left for the Sierra Anchas yesterday. When they packed up it was found that in order to carry all the artillery provided for the occasion that each member of the party would have to carry three guns, and the pack animals were so laden with ammunition that there was no room left for "grub." All went horseback except Mr. Ridenour, who rode a frisky mule. They swear they will each bring back a bear (or bare) skin if they tear all their clothes off in the attempt.

Misses Lina and Rebecca Lohmann, daughters of E. Lohmann, who have been visiting their grandmother at Globe are expected to return this morning.

Tempe has an epidemic of flies, common every day in the house flies. They collect on the screens so thickly that they shut out all the sunlight, and refuse to go. The drug stores have had a run on fly paper, fly poison, and every device known to science for the extermination of insect life, but for every fly killed twenty seemed to come to his wake. Yesterday a good man could have made wages shoveling parangs through the dead flies on the sidewalks.

If you have fat beef of any kind or fat hogs for sale come to the Pioneer meat market where you will receive the highest market price. Also any quantity of chickens wanted. J. R. Sturgeon, the proprietor, proposes to sell meat below any other shop in the valley.

The Tempe base ball aggregation, the Crimson Rims, will go to Phoenix today to play a match with the De Munds, and a goodly number of spectators will accompany them.

There was no band concert last Friday evening, much to the disappointment of many of Tempe's citizens. A carload of buggies, runabouts, spring wagons and Bain wagons has been received by the Tempe Hardware & Supply company.

TALK OF THE DAY

UNWISE INSURANCE LAWS.

The withdrawal of so many insurance companies from the south is generally credited to unwise legislation based upon an insufficient knowledge of the facts. Nothing is easier than for a legislature to pass laws in restraint of the business operations of insurance companies, but they seem to forget that nothing is easier than for these companies to pack up, bag and baggage, and go elsewhere, where they may be more favorably treated.

The necessity for insurance still remains, and those who must have it are put to the trouble of going abroad and submitting to extra conditions in order to obtain it, while the state loses the benefit of being the domicile of the company; it loses in the money that might be spent at home and in the salaries withdrawn from its midst—Atlanta Constitution.

FUNSTON'S EXPLOIT.

General MacArthur is not one of those who feel called upon to belittle the importance of General Funston's feat in capturing Aguinaldo. In his report as military governor of the Philippines he says the capture of the Filipino leader may be ranked as the most momentous single event of the year. He believes that both in its immediate results and in its remote effects General Funston's act was fortunate and beneficial to the islands. He calls it a unique, isolated transaction and attaches to it even greater importance than have Funston's admirers. That the insurrection has languished visibly since Aguinaldo's capture is undeniable. The bloodthirsty methods of Aguinaldo and of his secret organization, the Katipunan, already had done much to make the Filipinos fear him, but he continued to be invested with a halo of supernatural mystery. As General MacArthur says, millions of natives still believed him to be invincible. A mass of myths and legends already was growing up around his name among the ignorant peasantry. His capture has shattered the halo of punctured the legends. If Aguinaldo had been left to wander at large, or even if he had been killed in battle, he might have lived in Philippine legend as a kind of Barbarossa or King Alfred. General Funston changed all that. By bringing Aguinaldo to a place where he is seen to be only a piece of quite ordinary Filipino clay the Kansas killed the insurrection more summarily than if he had caused the death of the leader.—Chicago Tribune.

A RELIGION OF HUMBUG.

It is to be hoped the authorities in Cuba will in no wise aid the committee of theologians who desire to secure Cuban orphans for their school at Point Loma, Cal. Theology is philosophic divel and is a bogus religion founded on a humbug and carried on by humbugs. The quackery of the successors of Blavatsky have revealed the present day frauds, while the exposures made by Dr. Richard Hodgson in 1885 as to Blavatsky's Madras miracles still remain a classic performance in the art of tripping up mediums. A good many theologians of today, notably the notorious Colonel Olcott, seem to think that the public has a short memory and has forgotten all that came out as to the fraudulent methods of Blavatsky and company. In fact, a few years ago the theologians so far presumed on Mr. Hodgson's good nature as to assert he had changed his views as to what he had accomplished in 1885. But they caught a Tartar, for Mr. Hodgson reaffirmed his convictions of 1885 as to the cheap fraud which had been practiced by High Priestess Blavatsky and company.

Coke Dandruff Cure

Here is a case:

PAETOR'S STUDY.
 West Aniston M. E. Church, South Aniston, Ala.

A. R. BREMER CO.:
 My Dear Sir: About one month ago, seeing your advertisement in one of my magazines, I wrote you for a bottle of Coke Dandruff Cure, which you kindly sent, express charges prepaid. In all candor let me say that words are inadequate for me to express to you my profound gratitude for the blessing you sent me. I used it according to directions, and tho' I have been a sufferer from an exuberance of dandruff for more than ten years, accompanied with a disagreeable itching, yet it was not ten days from the date of the first application until every particle of dandruff had completely disappeared. I have had this trouble, as before stated, for more than ten years, in the face of the fact that my head has been regularly shampooed fifty-two times each year, for not less than fifteen years. Refer anybody to me, when I will take pleasure in answering them personally. Gratefully yours, no theologian has been able to escape the damning conclusions he arrived at. The whole issue is a sorry mess, and while the Cuban orphans may need schooling they certainly do not need to be made victims of modern theology.—Philadelphia Press.

A HOUSE BUILT UPON A ROCK.

The parable of the two houses, one founded on the sand, the other on a rock, is illustrated by a commercial and financial condition of the great panic years 1873 and 1893 with those of today. Our house was on the sand in those fateful years, and when the storm came it fell, "and great was the fall thereof." Storms have come this year, but our house stands, for we have substituted solid rock for sand in our foundation.

Perpetual and increasing prosperity is not to be expected. Our experience of the past four years is a phenomenon that may not soon be repeated. At any rate, it would be unwise to count on a repetition of it. But our financial solidity is assured. Nothing but such a display of folly as this people may be assumed to be incapable of could shake it. Instead of being dependent on Europe for money, we prepared to cash European securities. Our banks are sound, and the west and south are supplying themselves with the banking facilities for which they have hitherto been dependent on the east. Our savings bank deposits attest the prosperity and thrift of the wage workers.

Taken as a whole, our financial, industrial and commercial statistics tell a story of great progress and prosperity, than was ever before told of any people on earth. Still, it will be wise to count on occasional setbacks, because experience admonishes us that they must come. But our rock foundation will last. There is no danger that our children or their children will see such periods of dreadful depression as this generation has witnessed.—Washington Post.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a world wide reputation for its cures. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Elvey & Hulett.
